

BRYAN ON UP-STATE TOUR SAYS "WE'LL CARRY NEW YORK"

Makes Speech at Station Before Starting on Visit to Hudson River Towns.

LIKES HIS RECEPTION.

Finds Voters in East Fully as Enthusiastic as Those in the West.

William J. Bryan left the Grand Central Station in a special train at 9:45 A. M. to speak at all the towns along the Hudson, covering the same route as that of Mr. Taft yesterday.

Before he left the Hoffman House at 9:30 Mr. Bryan said, in response to questions from the newspaper men:

"We are confident of carrying the country."

"We expect to carry New York State. The Republicans have no more show of carrying New York than they have of winning Alabama."

"I have no figures to state with regard to the Electoral vote."

He was asked what Roosevelt would do with Taft if Taft was defeated.

"I don't know," said Mr. Bryan. "You will have to ask Roosevelt."

"Is he going to put him on the Supreme Court bench?"

"I don't know—he's got four more months to think that over."

Speech at the Station.

At the station Mr. Bryan made a five-minute speech just before his train started. He said:

"I have enjoyed my visit in New York greatly. I have been very much gratified at the evidence of interest in the success of the Democratic ticket."

"Out West we think we have a way of expressing our enthusiasm, but I shall be proud to tell them that you are just as enthusiastic in the East."

"I believe that the East and the West, the North and the South, will share in the Democratic victory and I'm glad to have a united Democracy behind us, and a frightened Republican party in front of us."

"I am encouraged by the confidence of the Democracy behind us and amused at the consternation of the hosts in front of us."

Mr. Bryan's line of march includes these stops: Hastings, Tarrytown, Ossining, Peekskill, Poughkeepsie, Rhinecliff, Hudson, Rensselaer, Albany, Schenectady and Troy.

Accompanying him on the trip were Mrs. Bryan, Gov. Jennings of Florida; Secretary Rose, Jeremiah Sullivan, Democratic State Chairman of Iowa; John S. Kennedy, of Buffalo, and National Chairman Norman Maclean. Mr. Maclean, however, will leave the candidate at Poughkeepsie.

Bryan Nearly Meets Taft.

At Hastings a shower of Taft campaign buttons rained down on a crowd which had assembled to hear Bryan speak. The Bryan train had just come to a halt, as the special whizzed by on its way from Troy to New York City.

Judge Taft was in his stateroom, but several members of his party were on the rear platform, and besides surprising the crowd with buttons gave a lusty yell for the Onions.

Mr. Bryan quickly saw the identity of the train and waved his hand in answer to the salutation and also threw a broad smile at the disappearing train.

Rain was falling when Bryan's special arrived at Ossining, but the crowd didn't seem to mind it and gave the candidate a hearty welcome. Mr. Bryan spoke for about three minutes from the rear platform of his car and shook hands with as many people as could get near him.

At Peekskill the local Democrats had a parade headed by a brass band and a big drum corps. When the special train pulled in at 11:17 o'clock the candidate received an enthusiastic welcome from a crowd of about 2,500 persons.

Mr. Lynn, the Democratic Congressional candidate, came to the station to meet Bryan and all the Democratic County candidates were with Mr. Bryan on the train.

ROOSEVELT UPHELD ON TAFT'S RECORD.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—President Roosevelt to-day made public a long letter from Samuel B. Donnelly, Secretary of the General Association of the New York Building Trades, in which Mr. Donnelly upholds the President in his presentation of the record of Judge Taft, as set forth by him in a letter to P. H. Grace, of Binghamton, N. Y., and published the other day.

WEAVER WITH KERN ON INDIANA TOUR

Former Populist Candidate Joins in Attacking Republican Doctrine.

HARBOR CITY, Ind., Oct. 28.—The special interurban electric car carrying the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, John W. Kern, on his tour through Indiana from Fort Wayne rolled into this city early to-day for a fifty-minute stop, the first on the day's itinerary.

In spite of the early hour there, a big crowd had gathered in the Court House square to welcome the candidate, who spoke from a platform in the open air.

The only other speaker on board was Gen. James E. Weaver, of Colfax, Ia., twice candidate for the Presidency on the Populist ticket.

Mr. Kern spoke at some length here on the tariff issue, charging to protect the growth of monopolies and the accumulation of great wealth in the hands of the few. He referred to a speech made by Senator La Follette in the Senate last March in which that gentleman declared that one hundred men control the commercial and financial destiny of the country and supplemented that statement by the assertion that fourteen men to-day have absolute domination of all the railroads in the country.

Gen. Weaver spoke on the question of publicity of campaign funds and the physical valuation of railroads.

The itinerary for the day provides for speeches to be made at Bluffton, Warsaw, Goshen and Elkhart. From the last named city it is expected that the party will go to Chicago at night and return to Indianapolis over the Monon route.

HUGHES WARMLY GREETED AT BIG EAST SIDE RALLY.

Gov. Hughes in his opening speech of a series he is scheduled to deliver this afternoon and evening, made an appeal for the support of the labor union voters, and explained his veto of the Columbus Day bill. He said that if stood upon his record, and that if the people did not like what he had done as Governor, he was content to have them express their opinion to that effect upon Election Day.

The meeting was held in front of the club-house of the Republican organization of the Third Assembly District, of which James E. March is leader. The quality of March's Republicanism has been questioned in this campaign by County Chairman Parsons, and the versatile "Jimmy" fairly set Little Italy on fire in his efforts to make a big showing for Gov. Hughes and Mr. Taft. The Republican candidate for President followed Gov. Hughes at the meeting, and March proudly announced that it is the first time a Republican candidate for the Presidency had ever appeared in person on the east side to talk to the people.

Crowd of 10,000.

Gov. Hughes spoke from a second floor balcony. A crowd of 10,000 was packed in the street, stretching for blocks north and south, and backing up into Spring street almost to Broadway.

The crowd was composed mostly of Italian residents of the neighborhood with a sprinkling of workmen from the neighboring factories.

The Governor was cheered deliriously when he stepped into the view of the crowd. He was introduced by Leader March, and spoke as follows:

"Fellow Citizens, I am pleased to meet you in a place where I lived as a boy. Thirty years ago I spent considerable time in the Third Assembly District, and I am interested in everything that pertains to the welfare of the wage earner."

"We have done considerable in the way of labor legislation in the past two years in Albany. We have improved the Labor Department, and appointed a new Commissioner of Labor, who was a labor man, and a representative of a labor union. He has been in the department a number of years, and has deserved promotion."

"We have passed laws improving sanitary conditions and increasing the safeguards around those who are dependent upon the labor of their hands. We have transferred control of the inspection of factories to the State department, taking it from the Health Commissioners, who did not have time to properly attend to it."

"We have lowered the hours of labor, given telephone and telegraph operators on railroads a shorter day and have brought about a semi-monthly payroll for railroad employees."

Columbus Day Veto.—I am anxious to do all I can for our Italian-American citizens. When the Columbus Day bill, providing for a holiday on the anniversary of the discovery of America, was introduced I found it was necessary to veto it. It was very sorry to do so, but the bill was not properly drawn.

I have spent many happy days in Italy, and appreciate the importance of the welfare of our Italian-American citizens, but if I had signed the Columbus Day bill, as it was presented to me, our business affairs would have been thrown into confusion. If you want a Columbus Day let us have a real holiday, and let the bill be drawn up in a proper manner, and we shall have it. I do not like to do things that are unpopular, but as Governor I must do my duty."

"I favor the enforcement of the rights of the citizen. We must have greater facilities for the comfort of people going to and from their work, but we don't want to see men discharged, and business houses shut down and cars taken off. Everything must be done in proper form."

"You cannot stampede the American people. I have been fighting for the rights of the people for two years in Albany. If they don't like what I have done, all right. If they do, I want their support."

Gov. Hughes went direct from the meeting in Lafayette street to "The Farm," at West and Bethune streets, where Mr. Taft had spoken less than five minutes before. There was a crowd of about 3,000 clustered around the stand when the Governor arrived.

He spoke for eight minutes on general topics connected with the campaign, and then addressed the crowd, saying: "I think the Governor's position is a sincere one, when it is really an office for a tremendous amount of work."

"It has been charged," said Mr. Hughes, "that I am opposed to the party. I have been called narrow minded, and I have been made to appear in a most unpleasant light. I am an American people. I have never done or said anything against personal liberty but have simply acted as provided for in the constitution of the State, and that has been my attitude against public gambling, and I will continue to do so."

"I want to build up and conserve the prosperity of this State while we try to kill the evils. What I most earnestly desire is to have the administration of the last two years supported and to have your support on the 3d of November."

The Governor spoke along the same lines at the Forum, Broadway and Astor place. At the rooms of the Sound Money League, No. 37 Union Square, he made a rousing speech advocating the candidacy of Mr. Taft and touching upon national issues. This was the best of the meetings addressed by Gov. Hughes from the standpoint of enthusiasm. From there he went to the Hotel Astor for a rest, before beginning his arduous labors in the evening.

There is no doubt about it that the Roosevelt administration is not popular in Washington. It is said that an honest poll of the White House employees would show a majority for Bryan.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A straw vote taken at the local theatres last night showed a considerable majority for Bryan, although the audiences were made up largely of department employees.

TWO DEAD FROM POISON IN HOUSEHOLD OF MINISTER.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 28.—Death by poison of two servants in the home of the Rev. Carter Heim Jones, pastor of the Baptist Church here, has started an investigation to determine whether the poison was put for the minister by persons in Lynchburg, Va., who objected to his marriage to a woman of the Methodist Church. Dr. Jones says he does not believe the poison was meant for him. Edward and Laura Davis, servants in the household of Dr. Jones, were found dead. Beside them was a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of blackberry brandy. The brandy had been brought by Dr. Jones's family from Virginia.

Dr. Jones was pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church in Louisville for years. About a year ago he went to Lynchburg to take one of the largest churches there. He married a prominent Methodist woman, and this marriage outside of his denomination caused bitter comment.
